RE: Acceptance of Gift from Mr. Danny Emory

Mr Danny Emory, father of Danielle Emory, who is a senior work student at the central office, is donating a picnic table for use by the central office in the name of Wanda Hagy. An inscription will be on the table reading, "In memory of Wanda Hagy".

We are requesting school board approval for acceptance and acknowledgement of the table.

Dear Dr. Meara,

I am the director of Reveille Weekday School, a non-profit preschool in Richmond, Virginia. We are a ministry of Reveille United Methodist Church. One of my parents told me about Dawn Butler and the work that she is doing for young children at Pocahontas Elementary School. Following our conversation, I read the article in the March 26 issue of Powhatan Today.

We have been most fortunate, this year, to have had a very active parent committee who has made it possible, through fund raising efforts, to purchase most of the items on our "wish list". I approached my staff and school board and asked if they would be interested in donating the proceeds from our bake sale to Dawn's cooking class. The bake sale is part of a family night in our Week of the Young Child celebration. The staff and board were happy to support Dawn's cause. In addition, the teachers would like to plan a unit on nutrition for our young children.

We would like to donate a total of $600.00 to Dawn so that she can purchase food and supplies for her cooking program. I am writing to ask your permission to send a check to Pocahontas Elementary for this purpose.

We were touched by Dawn's creativity and desire to extend her teaching into the home lives of the children she serves. She has exemplified the importance of the home-school connection in the overall educational experience of young children their families.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Elaine Kastelberg
